

Detailed Schedule for “Reform’s Long Shadows: Global Reactions to Perestroika and ‘Reform and Opening Up,’ 1978-1991

last modified 19.09.2023

subject to modifications

Thursday, October 5, 2023

- 15:30 Scheduled arrival of Timothy Nunan from Regensburg at Hünfeld (will plan to take bus to Geisa, will wait for shuttle at 17:30 if trains delayed)
- 17:30 - 18:00 Participants arrive at Hünfeld station, shuttle transfer to Schloss Geisa Hotel
- 18:00 - 19:00 Arrival at Schloss Geisa Hotel, Check-in, Opportunity to freshen up
- 19:00 - 21:00 Group dinner in Schloss Geisa Hotel restaurant

Friday, October 6, 2023

- early - 9:00 Breakfast at Hotel Schloss Geisa
- 9:00 - 9:30 Opening Remarks by Timothy Nunan and Short Introductions
- 9:30 - 11:30 Guided Tour of Point Alpha Memorial
- 11:30 - 13:30 Short Presentations of Translated Documents and Initial Commentary (5 minutes introduction, 10 minutes feedback and commentary)
During this discussion block, workshop participants will share the documents that they have translated for the workshop. Following a very brief informal presentation, the other workshop participants and/or members of PARI attending the workshop will offer comments, questions about the document, and ideas for how best to contextualize it for the workshop.
- 11:40 - 11:55 Natalia Ayo Schmiedecke: article from Brazilian Communist Party magazine on perestroika
- 11:55 - 12:10 Seung Hwan Ryu: North Korean party cadre magazines on Chinese reforms and perestroika
- 12:10 - 12:25 John Karugia Njenga: Tanzanian newspapers and parliamentary debates about reform in China
- 12:25 - 12:40 Janice Hyeju Jeong: South Korean reports on Chinese commercial penetration of the Middle East in the 1980s
- 12:40 - 12:55 Alice Trinkle: Hungarian reports on Chinese state banks' visits to Hungary in the 1980s

- 12:55 - 13:10 Siarhei Bohdan: Afghan mujahidin commentaries on the Soviet occupation of Afghanistan and Gorbachev
- 13:10 - 13:30 Timothy Nunan: Iraqi Shi'a Islamist commentaries on perestroika and glasnost', c. 1988
- 13:30 - 14:30 Lunch at Hotel Schloss Geisa
- 14:30 - 15:30 Breakout Session A: Participants Draft Short (750 Word) Blurb Explaining and Contextualizing Their Document
- 15:30 - 16:00 Coffee Break
- 16:00 - 17:00 Micro-Presentations and Feedback Round on Drafts of Blurbs
During this block, scholars will share their drafts or outlines of their blurbs on the documents they have translated and solicit feedback from other participants and/or members of PARI attending the workshop.
- If there is sufficient time – and as common themes begin to emerge – we will begin to discuss themes for the joint essay for the collection of documents.*
- 17:00 - 17:15 Coffee Break
- 17:15 - 18:15 Breakout Session B: Participants Complete Draft of Short (750 Word) Blurb Explaining and Contextualizing Their Document
During this block, participants will attempt to complete their blurb contextualizing their documents and send this to Dr. Nunan. These blurbs will be used in the to be published collection of documents and will help us structure our thoughts for the essay introducing the collection
- 18:15 - 19:30 Down Time / Opportunity to Freshen Up
- 19:30 - 21:30 Dinner at Italian Restaurant (Participants to Bear Costs)

Saturday, October 7, 2023

- early - 9:00 Breakfast at Hotel Schloss Geisa
- 9:00 - 11:00 Joint Drafting of Introductory Essay and Discussion of Further Plans for Collaboration
During this discussion block, workshop participants will share their completed (or near completed) drafts of their blurbs for their individual documents (c. 30 minutes). After these brief presentations, dicussion will move to themes and structure for the essay for the document collection to be submitted to the Wilson Center (c. 1 hour). If sufficient time exists, we may also begin to outline this introductory essay. Finally, we may also discuss potential opportunities for collaboration and/or third-party funding applications resulting from lines of questioning opened at the workshop.

- 11:00                      Deadline to Check Out of Rooms at Hotel Schloss Geisa
- 11:30 - 12:45              Light Lunch at Hotel Schloss Geisa
- 12:45 - 13:15              Shuttle Transfer to Hünfeld Train Station
- c. 13:30                      Participant Departures from Hünfeld

Important Information

Timothy Nunan

timothy.nunan@ur.de

+49 0151 1840 8025 (reachable on Signal and WhatsApp)

Hotel Schloss Geisa

Schloßpl. 4

36419 Geisa

+49 36967 593550